A screenshot of the Zoom mobile application's 'Sign in' screen. The screen is white with a blue Zoom logo at the top. Below the logo, it says 'Sign in to continue to Zoom'. There is an input field for 'Email or phone' containing the text '123456@seq.org'. Below the input field is a link that says 'Forgot email?'. The entire screenshot is enclosed in a red border.A screenshot of the Sequoia Union High School District Single Sign On page. The page has a grey background. At the top, it says 'Sequoia Union High School District Single Sign On'. Below that, it says 'Please enter your user name and password. Just use your plain username. Do Not append @seq.org'. There are two input fields: 'User name:' containing '123456' and 'Password:' containing a series of dots. Below the password field is a 'Login' button. The entire screenshot is enclosed in a red border.

4. You will get a box to enter a meeting ID, but you should be able to just join from a link your teacher has provided.

Viewing Multiple Windows

To shrink your Zoom screen and pull up a new browser tab to look like this:

1. Exit Zoom full screen by hitting ESC on your keyboard.
 - Resize* the window to take up about $\sim\frac{1}{4}$ of your screen (depends on your monitor size).
2. Open a new browser window and resize* it to take up the rest of your screen.

*From the corner of each screen, drag the arrow  to change window size.

Communicating in Zoom

1. Reactions

- Located in your Zoom controls (usually at the bottom of Zoom)
- Reactions stay up for 10 sections
- Chromebooks don't have reactions. Use #2.

2. Non-Verbal Communication

- Click Participants
- From the new screen, select the appropriate communication.
- Communication stays up until you/teacher take it down

Raise your hand!

3. Chat

- The Chat button brings up a new chat screen. Type in there.
